

Members of the Wasatch High School Waspettes took top honors at the Aloha Drill Team Competition held in Honolulu, Hawaii on June 21. The WHS Drill Team distinguished themselves by being the only team in the competition to take four superior ratings.

Waspettes Return

On June 22 the Wasatch High School Waspettes, under the direction of Kara Lynne Farr, returned home after spending 8 funfilled days in Hawaii.

The team saw many of the sights of Oahu. One day was spent touring the city of Honolulu. They saw everything from Punch Bowl to Diamond Head. Other days were spent at the Polynesian Culture Center, Pearl Harbor, and Hanauma Bay where they snorkled and swam. During their free time they went shopping, visited the beach, or explored Waikiki, where they stayed.

Sightseeing wasn't the only thing that they did. The team performed at the Ala Moana shopping center and also at the Royal Hawaiian Shopping Plaza. Drillteams from Oklahoma, Missouri, Oregon, California and Hawaii performed also. They were judged on a superior, excellent, good or fair rating scale. The Waspettes were judged in four divisions. They were the only team to be given superior ratings in all four areas.

Along with the team competition, there was an individual competition for the title of Miss Aloha Hawaii drillteam. Jenny Hendry and Angie Giles both competed for this title. Both did an excellent job of representing the Waspettes.

The Waspettes would like to thank everyone who helped and supported them this year. They would also like to thank Kara Lynne for all the time and effort that she put in last year.

Ladies Golf Association Wins

by Jo McGregor

The month of June started off with the Mick Riley Invitational in which our own Ann Zuspan won the Championship in a play-off. Three cheers for Ann, a super golfer. Seven of us enjoyed the tournament and a fabulous lunch.

On June 11 the Roosevelt Ladies Golf Association held their annual Invitational. There were ten of us that entered and these gals were some of the winners: In "B" Flight gross, Zee Zilonka took second place and in net Lucille Todd was in a four-way tie for third place. In "C" Flight net Janice Gustin won first place and Glenna Lloyd took second. Fawn Williams had the dubious honor of winning the shortest drive, but that's okay, the prize was a neat umbrella. It was a fun tournament as usual. Congrats to all the winners. I couldn't even win a door prize...

Our regular play days were as follows: June 3 was Criers Corner and Ann Zuspan took first, Lou Todd second, Velda Sadleir third, and Marge Sessions fourth.

June 10 was Most Bunkers and Sharon Carlson had the most, Ann Zuspan and Jo McGregor were tied for second. No others were given.

On June 24 the Most Sixes won. First place went to Lou Todd and Fawn Williams, second went to Janice Gustin and Nan Kohler, third place to Joyce Lloyd and Mary Smith, fourth to Zee Zilonka and Marge Sessions.

Speaking of Marge, her husband had to have emergency surgery but is home and doing fine. He didn't time this too well as Marge had to miss the tournament in Roosevelt.

We received a nice letter from Linda Baum, who is living back east now. She misses everyone and wished she were back here.

Just had big flash... Marge Sessions took second net in her flight at the Mountain Dell two-day tournament. Really proud of her as it was a big tournament.

That's all for this month.
